Angelo State Captures "City of Palms Bowl" Title

MCALLEN, TEX— Setting a national collegiate record with its 14th victory of the season Angelo State University of San Angelo, Tex., capped a perfect season with a 34-14 victory over Elon College NC in the first "City of Palms Bowl" here before a crowd of 8,443.

Basking in brilliant 73-degree temperatures the Rams, which finished 1978 at 14-0, including a 16-game unbeaten streak (the second longest in college football) continued the dominance of the Lone Star Conference. Lone Star teams have now won seven Division I titles in a row and nine of the last 10 championships.

Quarterback Mark Embry was the Angelo State catalyst on this partly cloudy and humid afternoon in the lower Rio Grande Valley. The Ram senior completed 19 of 36 passes for 197 yards and his two first half touchdown passes to Alvin Garrett (14 yards) and Eldredge Beverly (4 yards) kept Elon from keying on Ram tailback Jerry Aldridge, who despite the extra personal attention, gained 119 yards in 29 attempts—his 17th straight game of 100 yards or more.

Embry and Aldridge performances notwithstanding it was the Ram defense that gave Elon (11-2-1) and co-title holders of the South Atlantic Conference fits all afternoon

Linebacker Kelvin Smith, who was named the game's outstanding defensive player for his four solo tackles and eight assisted stops, was the chief enforcer as Angelo State held Elon to just 43 yards rushing in 34 tries.

However, it was the Angelo State secondary that should reap much of the defensive credit for this victory.

The Ram secondary, which picked off 21 passes during the regular season, had pilfered eight more in the two playoff games against Oregon College and Western State. They kept their record intact by intercepting a championship game record five passes (two by Wylie Turner, increasing his playoff totals to seven).

And it was the Ram secondary that thwarted a pair of Elon bids to make some noise in the second half. With Angelo State leading 21-7 at halftime the Rams fumbled on the first play of the third quarter and Elon quarterback Mike Currin's one-yard touchdown run and Mitch Rippy's point after brought the Christians to within 21-14.

Following an Angelo State punt Elon drove to midfield where Currin's pass was intercepted by Angelo State cornerback Mike Millegan at the Ram 29.

GIFTS EXCHANGE—It was gift exchange time at the "City of Palms Bowl." Angelo State defeated Elon NC, 34-14, in the championship game for Division I football playing institutions.

Elon lost its final opportunity when Angelo's John Nunley picked off a Currin aerial on the second play of the fourth quarter at the Ram 27. Eight plays and more than three minutes later Angelo State scored to go on top 28-14 and for all practical purposes the 23rd annual Division I championship game was history.

"The turning point in the game was when we pulled to within a touchdown and didn't take advantage of getting the ball on two different occasions," said Elon's Jerry Tolley.

Angelo State head coach Jim Hess pointed to the fourth quarter as the Rams' turning point. "We took the ball and went on the long drive (63 yards, 3 minutes, 22 seconds) there in the fourth quarter."

Regardless, both coaches agreed on one thing.

"Angelo State is just an outstanding football team. They have tremendous talent," said Tolley.

"This (the championship) is a climax to a great season, we did it all, I guess we can't get any better," offered Hess.

Here's a quick look at the action leading up to the championship game:

Elon 21 Concord 6

Elon quarterback Mike Currin tossed two long first half scoring passes to tight end Joey Hackett (73 yards) and flanker Larry Smith (63 yards) for a 21-6 victory at Elon. Tailback Bobby Hedrick (80 yards in 27 carries) and fullback James Dove (70 yards in 12 carries) led the Elon ground attack. Concord quarterback Dave Renner completed 21 of 45 passes for 369 yards but suffered three interceptions. His top receiver was flanker Carlos Lee, who caught six passes for 157 yards. The West Virginians had problems rushing the football—gaining just 23 net yards on 42 rushes.

Angelo State 35 Western State 3

Angelo State's vaunted defense shut down the potent Western State offense and the Rams cruised to a 35-3 semifinal game victory at San Angelo. Mark Embry completed only 9 of 21 passes for 158 yards but had touchdown strikes to Alvin Garrett (65 yards) and Johnnie Jackson (14 yards) on the afternoon. The Ram defense held in check Western State quarterback Charlie Thompson (29 yards rushing, 6 of 23 passing for 48 yards and six passes intercepted). Offensively, the Rams were powered by the running of fullback Arthur Gutierrez (111 yards, 20 carries) and tailback Jerry Aldridge (102 yards in 21 carries). Angelo State cornerback Wylie Turner, who picked off two Oregon passes in the quarterfinals, upped his playoff totals to five with three interceptions against the Mountaineers.

In the "Mud Bowl" Elon's Mitch Rippy booted field goals of 27 and 30 yards to give the Fighting Christians a 13-7 victory on its home turf, or what was left of it as a hard rain drenched the semifinal game crowd of 3,500. Elon took a 3-0 halftime lead on Rippy's 27-yard field goal and built its advantage to 13-0 late in the fourth quarter before Grand Valley got on the scoreboard. Bobby Hedrick (76 yards) and Steve Corpening (90 yards) led the Elon ground attack. Grand Valley coughed up four fumbles and had two passes intercepted on this wet afternoon.

Beliveau Leads Concordia to Division II Championship

FINDLAY, OH.—A two-yard scoring blast by senior All America first team running back Bob Beliveau and ensuing point-after kick by classmate Kurt Christensen with 11:41 left in the game was all the scoring offense the Concordia College Cobbers (Moorhead, Minn.) needed Dec. 9 to lay claim to their first outright NAIA national football title, downing host Findlay College, 7-0, for the 1978 NAIA Division II championship before a crowd of approximately 4,000 at Findlay's Donnell Stadium.

Matching, as it did, nationally ranked defenses (Concordia, 9th and Findlay, 15th) the contest produced the lowest scoring output in the nine-year history of Division II post season play. Findlay, held well below its usual offensive average of 401 yards a game, still managed to out-gain Concordia, 244 to 201 and out first down the winners, 14-11 but were unable to penetrate the Cobber defense that racked up its sixth shutout of the year.

Both Concordia (under Head Coach Jim Christopherson) and Findlay (under Dick Strahm) finished their respective seasons 11-1-0; the Cobbers co-champions of the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC) with St. Olaf MINN and Findlay, for the first time in its history, the outright Hoosier-Buckeye Conference (HBCC) titlist.

The championship game's lone scoring play capped a 17-play, 80-yard drive that started late in the third quarter and saw Beliveau and sophomore running mate Ron Kangas carry the ball 14 times for 53 yards—the touchdown coming on a third-and-one play.

Findlay came close to striking paydirt twice during the contest played on the ice-hardened Donnell turf—first early in the second stanza when a 68-yard drive to the Concordia 9 ended in a missed 26-yard field goal attempt and then late in the fourth quarter when a 4th-and-10 pass interference call gave the Oilers a 1st-and-goal opportunity on the Concordia 5—the threat ending with Cobber senior safety Mike Lee (later named the game's Outstanding Defensive Player) stopping Oiler sophomore back Wilson Beard at the 1 with 0:46 on the clock.

Beliveau, named the game's Outstanding Offensive Player, finished with a game high 99 yards on 24 carries while Findlay's Nelson Bolden, a 6-2, 220 pound sophomore, picked up 73 yards on 18 rushes. During the course of the playoff series both Beliveau and Bolden put their names in the NAIA post-season recordbook—Beliveau scor-

Southern Oregon Pulls Surprise In Cross Country Race

KENOSHA, WIS. — Southern Oregon State senior Kelly Jensen and the District 26 Pembroke State University Braves were the big winners at the NAIA's 23rd annual National Cross Country Championship meet Nov. 18 here on the University of Wisconsin-Parkside campus in Kenosha.

Jensen, who spent two years at Oregon State and another two as a coaching aide in Saudi Arabia before arriving at Southern Oregon, turned in his second NAIA championship performance by touring the raindampened five-mile Kenosha course in 25:07 to top a field of 384 runners while Pembroke State, rated No. 7 of the final NAIA regular season coaches poll, parlayed a second place finish by defending harrier king Garry Henry (25:15); a fifth (adjusted from sixth) by freshman David Lewis, 25:25; a 22nd (adjusted from 27th) by senior Jeff Moody, 25:55; a 34th (adjusted from 40th) by junior Jim Voot, 26:05; and a 63rd (adjusted from a 75th) by senior Wayne Broadhead, 26:20+, to claim its first team title in history with a 126 point total -21 better than second straight time runnerup Saginaw Valley State MICH, the team ranked No. 1 coming into the event.

Trailing Jensen, the defending NAIA 3000 meter steeplechase champion, and Henry, a four-time track All American, in the top ten were Wisconsin-Stevens Point senior Dan Buntman (3rd, 25:21); Dakota Wesleyan senior Dan Bullock (4th, 25:23); Adams State COLO freshman Tom White (5th, 25:24); Pembroke's Lewis; Southern Colorado sophomore Mike Duran (7th, 25:26); Pittsburgh-Johnstown veteran senior hoofer Henry Winger (8th, 25:27); Adams State senior captain Robert Fink (9th, TIGHT RACE—Eventual national champion Kelly Jensen (424) of Southern Oregon and 1977 titlist Garry Henry (382) of Pembroke State NC lead the pack going into mile number four of the 1978 cross-country championship meet held at Kenosha, Wis., Nov. 18. Henry's Pembroke State teammates won the '78 team crown.

25:30) and Southern Colorado senior Richard LeDoux (10th, 25:31).

Districts 7 and 12 each produced four All Americans while 14 and 26 had three each.

Trailing Pembroke and Saginaw Valley on the team front were defending champion Adams State (3rd, 180); District 14 champion Wisconsin-LaCrosse (4th, 204); District 1 titlist Eastern Washington (5th, 225); District 23 winner Hillsdale MICH (6th, 237); District 12 titlist Black Hills State SD (9th, 271) and Jensen's Southern Oregon squad (10th, 275).

A total of 46 teams competed — down six from the record 1977 field of 53.

Making a first time appearance at the national meet was the Danon Yogurt Company — co-sponsors of the post-meet All American banquet and providers of the runners' numbers used during the meet.

Quincy Shows Power In Reining as Soccer Champion

HUNTSVILLE, ALA. — Displaying the overall team strength that has for years been their trademark the Quincy ILL Hawks scampered to their second straight NAIA soccer championship Nov. 25, downing the University of Alabama-Huntsville, 2-0, on the loser's home field in Huntsville, Ala.

This year's tournament, the 20th in NAIA history, was sponsored by Dr Pepper with each member of the championship team receiving a ring from Dr Pepper.

The win was Quincy's record eighth national soccer crown — the other titles coming in 1966-67-71-73-74-75 and 1977. The Hawks, ranked No. 1 on the NAIA's weekly coaches poll throughout the season but seeded No. 2 coming into the tournament behind Rockhurst MO, finished the year 18-3-1; the losses going to Alabama A&M, Clemson and SIU-Edwardsville and the tie a 0-0 overtime stalemate with Benedictine KAN.

Outshooting Huntsville 29-6 (19-2 in the second half) in the championship game, Quincy jumped out to a 1-0 lead with 16 minutes gone when sophomore link Pat Howley's blast from 12 yards out trickled off UAH freshman goalie Emmanuel Amaefule's hands and into the net. The more decisive second goal came 77 minutes into the contest when senior forward Steve Melsheimer took a Howley feed from the right and banged it home from 10 yards out.

The Hawks' Bob Radice, a senior forward, was voted the 12-game, four-day tournament's Most Valuable Player and Outstanding Forward by a vote of participating coaches and was joined on the All-Tournament team by teammates Eric Delabar (senior goalie) and Tim Werner (senior back). For the second year in a row Keene State NH's Trevor Franklin (a senior) was named the meet's Outstanding Back.

Tenth year coach Jack Mackenzie's Hawks qualified for their shot at a title defense by downing Keene State 3-1 in a rematch of last year's championship game on opening day with second half goals by Melsheimer and sophomore Mike Kossman (2) and then besting a veteran Davis & Elkins WVA squad, 3-2, in the semifinals on goals by team captains Mike DiRaimondo and Dan McDonnell (who wrapped up a four-year career having started in 88 straight games) and Kossman. DiRaimondo's goal came on a followup of a deflected penalty kick and gave the Hawks a 1-1 tie going into the second half of play.

BATTLE ROYAL—Quincy's John Renaud (light uniform) and Keene State's Bert Toitirt (dark) go after a loose ball during opening round action in the NAIA's 20th annual Soccer fournament in Huntsville, Ala. Quincy won the game, 3-1, on the way to its eighth National life.

Huntsville, making only its second appearance in tournament competition and seeded No. 5 in the field, battled its way into the title game by first squeezing past No. 4 Simon Fraser CAN, the 1976 NAIA champion, 2-1 on first half scores by Nigerian imports Godwin Gbenimacho (an All America and All Tournament forward) and Ignatius "Steve" Illechuikwu and then upsetting top seeded Rockhurst, 2-1, on London, England sophomore Ian Harding's second goal of the day — this one coming during the NASL style "shootout" after the teams went through regulation and two 10-minute sudden death overtime periods deadlocked at 1-1.

Rockhurst rebounded from its loss to win third place honors by downing an injury hampered Davis & Elkins squad, 1-0, on All American Mark Scott's blast at the 72 minute mark while Simon Fraser took fifth by downing first-time participant The King's NY, 3-1, and Keene State salvaged seventh by downing newcomer Tennessee Wesleyan, 4-0.

Simon Fraser's Mike McLenaghan was the tournament's leading scorer with four goals — three of them coming on a tournament record-tying three penalty kicks.

The tourney, played under modified FIFA rules with a three-man officiating crew, was played on a choppy Huntsville field after a steady rain on the eve of the start of the tournament had the teams playing on mud opening day.

Jim Hess Named 1978 Football Coach of Year

Jim Hess, who guided Angleo State University TEX to a national collegiate record of 14 victories in one season and the NAIA Division I national championship is the 1978 NAIA Football Coach of the Year.

The 42-year-old Hess has completed five seasons as Angelo State head coach, compiling a mark of 40 victories, 15 losses and two ties.

Following a successful high school coaching career and a four-year stint as an assistant coach at Rice University Hess joined the Angelo State staff in 1972 and took over the head coaching duties prior to the start of the 1974 season.

Since then the Rams have been nationally ranked four of those years—finishing sixth in 1975, 19th in 1976, seventh in 1977 and winning the national title in 1978. Hess was named Lone Star Conference Coach of the Year in 1977 as the Rams finished second behind eventual national champion Abilene Christian University.

Hess played collegiately at Southeastern Oklahoma State University where he earned his bachelor's degree. He holds a master's degree from North Texas State University.

In addition to winning National Coach of the Year honors Hess was also selected Area 2 Coach of the Year. Other area winners, as selected by members of the NAIA Football Coaches Association are:

AREA 1—AD RUTSCHMAN, LINFIELD ORE

Led the Wildcats to an 8-0 regular season record and a No. 1 ranking in Division II throughout the season. They finished 9-1 overall, absorbing a 26-24 defeat to Concordia MINN in the semifinal round of the playoffs. His 11-year record at Linfield is now 77-24-1 for a .760 winning percentage.

AREA 3—TED KESSINGER, BETHANY KAN

The Swedes won 19 in a row before losing to Missouri Valley in the Division II playoffs (quarterfinal round). They were ranked as high as fifth nationally during the regular season and wound up 10-1 on the season. His three-year coaching record at Bethany is a glossy 25 victories and 6 defeats.

AREA 4-KEN GIBLER, MISSOURI VALLEY

Valley finished 9-2 (ranked fifth nationally in Division II) and advanced to the semifinal round of the playoffs. He completed his 11th season at Valley and holds a career mark of 83 victories, 25 losses and five ties during that stretch.

AREA 5—KEN STEPHENS, CENTRAL ARKANSAS

Led the Bears to a 9-2 season, an Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference championship and a berth in the Division I playoffs. UCA was ranked as high as third nationally (final regular season poll) and wound up No. 5 after taking a first-round playoff loss to Western State COLO. After seven years at UCA his record is now 43-29-4.

AREA 6-DICK STRAHM, FINDLAY OHIO

Led the Oilers to an 11-1 season and the NAIA Division II championship final where they lost 7-0 to Concordia, MINN. Ranked third in the Division II final regular season poll but moved up to No. 2 after the playoffs. Has a four-year mark at Findlay of 25 wins, 14 losses and 1 tie, including three Hoosier-Buckeye Conference titles (won or tied) in a row.

AREA 7-BILL HAYES, WINSTON-SALEM STATE NC

Has led the Rams to back-to-back 11-1 seasons. His club finished 10-0 during the regular season but opted for the NCAA Division II playoffs where they defeated Cal Poly before losing to Delaware.

AREA 8—AL JACKS, CLARION STATE

Led the Eagles to an 8-3 season (ranked No. 10 in final regular season poll). It was the 16th straight campaign that Clarion has had a winning season under Jacks. His career mark at Clarion is now 104 wins, 38 losses and five ties.

Turner Named Top Baseball Man

Warren Turner, who brought unheralded Missouri Southern State College to a near-miss national championship in the 1978 NAIA Baseball World Series has been voted the NAIA's 1978 Baseball Coach of the Year.

Turner's '78 Missouri Southern club went into the World Series with a 21-14 record—the "worst" in the tournament field. It took a no-hit pitching performance and an 8-6 victory in the final game—both accomplished by Emporia State KAN—to end the cinderella Lion's chances at the national title and they had to settle for second place.

A native of Joplin, Mo., Turner coached at Joplin's Memorial High School before going to Missouri Southern prior to the start of the

Swimming Training Depends on Physiologically Demand

Jim Bain, Swimming Coach University of Denver 1978 NAIA Coach of the Year

Training for competitive swimming is so physiologically demanding that it appears unrealistic to expect a swim athlete to maintain a peak level of performance throughout an entire season. At the University of Denver we have placed our emphasis on a peaking schedule that has been geared toward reaching optimal performance at conference and national championship competitions. This peaking schedule has been based on the individual swimmer's performance expectations as determined by the athlete and coach.

Although many teams may have this same philosophy we continue to compete against opponents who train at levels that peak their athletes very early in the season. While there is pressure to peak early in order to have a good dual meet record, our philosophy has been to incorporate the dual meets as part of the training schedule. That is, with no special preparation for these events. Consequently, our dual meet record over the past years has not been very impressive. In fact, we have won a conference championship with a dual meet record of 5-6. As the record might indicate, this team did not have exceptional talent or depth. However, each of our athletes believed that our philosophy would provide them the best opportunity to maximize their final results. They attributed their team's success to each individual athlete's ability to maintain a planned peaking schedule. It is important to note that this peaking schedule required both patience and understanding on the part of the athlete in terms of his season's objectives. Thus the physical barriers also became psychological ones.

Regulating the swimmer's work schedule through the competitive season can create many anxieties within the swimmer that are associated with a gradual approach. They are under the constant self-imposed pressure to win. The athlete must believe that the end result will be a quality performance. Year after year, the use of a peaking schedule has proven to be very successful for a majority of the swimmers in our program. This approach necessitates treating each swimmer individually with sprinters and stroke men having more gradual peaking schedules than do our distance athletes. Even the members of our diving team are utilizing this process. Overall they do not work as many hours as considered normal.

Several principles are employed in educating our athletes about peaking schedules. These are:

JIM BAIN University of Denver

- 1. The way to bring about improvement in swimming performance is through physiological stress.
- 2. The greater the stress the faster the improvement.
- 3. The faster the improvement the less amount of time one can remain at optimal levels of performance over a period of a season.
- 4. The faster the improvement the lower will be the final end result over a period of a season.
- 5. Therefore, the peaking curve should be well thought out taking into account the length of the competitive season and the schedule of championship events.

In this same regard several factors appear to play a part in the preparation of our athletes. We attempt to educate them in the following manner:

Physically

- There must be a gradual progression in terms of intensity of work load.
- 2. That rest is important, but relaxation is more important.
- 3. Quality is more important than quantity.
- 4. Effort is more important than work load.

- Adequate stretching of the muscle fibers is necessary in order to prepare the body to work. It is equally important after practice in order to help prepare the body for the next day's workout.
- Interval training techniques in order to educate the body to how it "feels" to go faster.

Psychological and Mental

- Individually to develop a temporal perception of the event as to rhythm, space and rate.
- 2. Never dwell on mistakes (To do so tends to cause repetition of the mistake).
- Always view oneself as successful.
- 4. Realize the affects and advantages of training at Denver's 5,280 feet altitude.
- 5. Understand the factors relating to "drag" in the water and the benefits of shaving the body.
- Using positive coaching feedback that emphasizes what the swimmer is doing
- Emphasizing the responsibility of each swimmer in terms of providing a supportive environment for his teammates.

These and other factors appear to set the guidelines for our approach. We believe in providing a good educational as well as physical foundation. We believe that to have positive educational values that our approach must be demanding and positive. This approach has provided us great results.

NAIA Coach Spends Busy Sunday On NFL Gridiron

CARSON, CALIF—While many coaches spend their Sundays glued to the tube watching professional football games, Dr. James Poole is spending his Sabbath officiating the contests that his peers are enjoying.

Poole, a professor-coach at California State University Dominguez Hills, is a National Football League official. He has been at the job for four years and admits it is more than a three-hour Sunday occupation.

"Being an NFL official isn't all glory," says Poole. "It isn't just a Sunday afternoon. It starts on a Saturday morning and ends late Sunday night."

Poole's NFL officiating career got its start several years ago when he was calling penalties in the Los Angeles High School prep circuit.

He was discovered by an NFL scout during a LA city football playoff game. The scout persuaded Poole to apply for an NFL officiating job. The league proceeded to watch Poole for the next two falls when he was officiating collegiate games in the West Coast.

"Every year more than 1,000 persons apply to become NFL officials. In 1975 this was narrowed to 30 who were interviewed by the league office and I was one of 10 who was chosen.

"I feel they selected me because I had a great deal of experience behind me by officiating football on both the high school and college levels. The fact that I was also a basketball official helped too."

Poole is a member of a seven-man officiating team. He holds the position known as "back judge."

"As back judge I'm down the field about 17 yards off the line of scrimmage," he said. "I watch to see if the wide receiver on my side blocks legally or is illegally chucked (contacted) by the opposing defensive player.

"I also call any pass interference on both the offense and defense on any pass plays to my side of the field. I also follow my receiver down the field. Since I have a 17-yard start on him, I usually have little trouble keeping up with him. I also make calls downfield on punts and am on a goalpost during field goal attempts."

NFL officials start preparing for the upcoming football season in May. During that time they are sent a 200-question summer guide which they must concentrate on for the next month. The ten officials in Los Angeles get together once a week and discuss a selected 45 of the 200 questions.

In the second week of July the 50 officials from the western part of the nation meet in Kansas City while the 50 officials from the eastern half get together in Pittsburgh, Pa. There they spend four to five days going over rules and regulations and anything that would be of importance to them before they start working pre-season games beginning the end of July or the first of August.

According to Poole, the toughest calls he has to make are pass interference, clipping and in or out-of-bounds on pass receptions.

"These calls are extremely tough because they happen out in the middle of the field and everybody thinks that they have just as good a view as I do," he said. "I get more heat from coaches, players and fans from fouls in the open-field more than any other calls I make."

Poole believes that stadiums designed exclusively for football (Los Angeles Coliseum, New York Giants Stadium, Superdome in New Orleans) are easier to make calls at than stadiums used for combination football-baseball games (Shea Stadium in New York, Metropolitan Stadium in Minnesota).

"Stadiums designed strictly for football are easier to make calls at than combination stadiums where the baseball diamond and gridiron are on the same field," said Poole. "When that is the case, the official can get confused with all the lines and might not make as accurate a call. Sometimes it is difficult to see a play when a cloud of dirt is flying in the air and the grass is loose and not stable."

Poole enjoys officiating and hopes to be active in the NFL for years to come.

"There is no forced age retirement in the business," he said. "You are hired by the league on a yearly basis and if they think your judgment in making quick decisions is impaired, you won't be rehired.

"I enjoy officiating and look forward to doing it for several years to come. I like the feeling of meeting different people from around the country and being exposed to their different ideas and personalities."

Carroll Football Coach Makes 'Great' Sacrifice

(Editor's Note: The following article is from the November 10 issue of the Chicago Tribune and is reprinted in part with their permission)

WAUKESHA, WIS—Mark Williams took a 50 per cent slash in his salary this year, moved from his fashionable neighborhood, gave up his sporty automobile and cancelled his country club membership just to be a football coach.

The 52-year-old Williams, a rookie head coach at Carroll College, was a senior vice president of marketing for Blue Cross-Blue Shield in Wisconsin before accepting the position at Carroll last spring.

"All my life football has been my avocation and insurance my business," says Williams. "I finally decided that I wanted to turn the two situations around."

Williams had been a part-time assistant coach and a full-time salesman for many years. He even was a part-time head coach of Chicago Latin School while he performed as chief operating officer of Continental National American's health and accident division in the Loop.

In 1965, he became a defensive line coach with the Joliet Chargers, a farm club for San Diego. He was promoted to general manager in 1966 and lost a $15,000 investment when the team folded in 1969.

Hiring Williams appealed to several parochial and public high schools because he wanted little financially. That also was one reason football coach Steve Miller hired him to the Carroll staff in 1973 as a part-time line coach.

When Miller resigned in 1976, Williams was offered his job. He asked for a year to consider the decision and Carroll Athletic Director Bob Larsen assumed the 1977 coaching duties.

"I finally realized I would be happler in football and out of insurance. People ask me if I don't get worn down by the pressure. And I tell them that next to reaching a sales growth goal of 25,000 new customers, the tension of winning isn't at all comparable."

Carroll finished the 1978 season with a 6-3 record in the rugged College Conference of Illinois-Wisconsin.

Williams spurned coaching for sales after being an all-around athlete at Hobart College in Geneva, N.Y. A third-generation insurance man Williams motivates Carroll "just like I used to motivate salesmen, much the same techniques . . . I still worry, but I enjoy this kind of worrying."

Williams also keeps his hands in the insurance game, teaching classes at Carroll in principles of insurance and management.

The insurance man turned coach enjoys his new lifestyle. "We went to the country club on the 4th of July because it was expected by the company and the neighbors. We never really thought about whether it would be a good time."

NAIA Players Earn AP All-American Spots

Angelo State's Jerry Aldridge (rb); Indiana PA's Jim Haslett (de); Jacksonville State ALA's Jesse Baker (dt); Pacific Lutheran WASH's John Zamerlin (lb) and Texas A&I's Billy John (ot) head up the NAIA's representation on the Associated Press' 1978 College Division All America football squad released recently from AP headquarters in New York.

Rating AP second team honors were Abilene Christian TEX's Kirby Jones (te); Alabama State's Billy Smith (ot); Jackson State MISS's Anthony Young (db); Minnesota-Morris' Jack Siljendahl (wr); Wilmington OH's Steve Moyer (lb) and Wisconsin-Whitewater's John Fonaas (db).

Offensive third team attention went to Sam

Houston State TEX wide receiver Clay Lowry; Presbyterian SC tackle Roy Walker and Central Methodist quarterback Tom Stine while defensively Minnesota-Duluth linebacker Calvin Barr and Wisconsin-LaCrosse linebacker Joel Williams were honored.

An additional 116 NAIA gridders were listed as AP honorable mention selectees.

Wrestling Championships Pose Race for Title

The 1978 edition of the NAIA national wrestling tournament went right down to the last of its 525 matches before a winner could be crowned; the Southern Oregon State Red Raiders coming away from Whitewater WIS with its first mat title in history. Now with Southern Oregon; twotime runnerup Grand Valley State MICH and perennial powerhouses Adams State COLO, Eastern Washington, Central State OKLA and UW-Whitewater; all boasting strong contingents this year's tourney, set for March 1-3 at the Wheeling Civic Center in Wheeling, W. Va., with West Liberty State acting as host, figures to be just as close as last year's national show-

Coming into the '78-'79 campaign 10-year coach Bob Riehm's Southern Oregon grapplers list five returning lettermen led by defending 177-pound national champion Darrel Landers, a junior who knocked off top-seeded Steve Behl, UW-Platteville, 7-5 on his way to the national crown; senior squad captain Dave Adams, last year's runnerup at 150 and senior Larry Nugent, who rebounded back from a first round 134-pound pin by UW-Whitewater's Carmelo Flores to later decision Flores, 8-7, for third in the weight class.

Over at Grand Valley Laker mentor Jim Scott is hoping that the third time will be the charm after two consecutive years of finishing an eyelash from the crown. Bolstering his spirits is the return of 12 lettermen led by '78 158-pound king Michael Abrams; heavyweight runnerup Ron Essink (6'6, 235) and senior 118-pounder Felix Perez. Top Laker newcomers include Northern Michigan transfer Tim Horn at 142; JUCO All America 142-pounder Paul Newman and former Saginaw Valley State MICH grapplers Ralph Roberts (167) and Terry Nicholson (126). Both finished third in their respective events at Whitewater.

Adams State, the meet's last back-to-back champion ('75-'76), experienced a banner recruiting year and lists no fewer than three JUCO All Americans (Ricc Prosuch, 2nd-150; Cedric Graham, 2nd-190 and Roger McCausland, 3rd-134) to join a holdover group of seven lettermen paced by '78 national heavyweight champion Herb Stanley (5-11, 220) and sixth place 142-pounder Richard Lopez.

1977 titlist Eastern Washington has also gone successfully to the JUCO well coming up with junior Pan American 142-pound gold medalist Dave Reimnitz and U.S.W.F. junior 167 pound titlist Jim O'Connell on board to pick up the slack left by the graduation of four Eagle All Americans and come to the aid of squad co-captains Larry Bush (134) and Mike Stolp (177). A star-studded freshmen class will also help while over at Central State new head coach Eddie Griffin trots out four returning All Americans in 134-pound junior runnerup David James (20-5); 142 third place finisher Danny Cruze (sr.); 118-pound fifth place finisher Jeff Robinett (soph.) and '76 135-pound runnerup Doug McHenry (jr.) and a healthy Johnny Powell at 142. Key Bronco newcomers include New York JUCO Ron Zeno at 167; prep 150 all-star Robert Ritchie and major college heavyweight transfers Rod Chaney (Tulsa) and Steve Foster (Oklahoma).

Finally over at Whitewater Coach Willie Myers' five-time WSUC champions return six regulars off of last year's fifth-ranked team including three-time lettermen Steve Johnsted (177) and Mike Summerville (190); '78 junior All American Carmelo Flores (134-4th) and sophomore heavyweight Mark Swenson, who spent a portion of the summer touring Iran as a member of the U.S. National Juniors team after winning the Wisconsin State AAU freestyle unlimited title.

Seven of the meet's ten individual weight championships will be up for grabs with only Grand Valley's Abrams (158); Southern Oregon's Landers (177) and Adams State's Stanley (heavyweight) back to defend.

Topping the list of returning All Americans not already mentioned are Lake Superior State MICH's trio of 158-pounder Roger Dallas (2nd in '78; 27-1); 126-pounder Ted Yachanin (4th) and 142-pounder Mark Poletti (5th); and Taylor IND's Drew Whitfield (2nd-190) and Bob LaFollette (2nd-167).

ROGER DALLAS Lake Superior State All-America performer

Simon Fraser Still Remains as Top Swimming Contender

There are teams that dominate a sport and teams that DOMINATE a sport. When speaking of NAIA swimming and diving Simon Fraser University CAN definitely falls into the latter category as come March 8-10 in Huntsville, Ala., the Paul Savage led Clansmen go after their unprecedented eighth straight national title—a feat unparalleled in NAIA sports history.

Figuring to be back for this year's 23rd annual splashdown is a group of 18 Clansmen lettermen—12 of whom were 1978 All Americans and none of whom are currently seniors. Topping the list are '78 Portland multiple winners Vic "Butch" Batchelor (200 yd. backstroke, 1:56.76; 200 freestyle, 1:42.94; 200 indiv. medley, 1:56.36; and legs on winning 400 medley and 800 freestyle relays); Mark Hahto (100 and 200 butterflies, :51.81 and 1:53.25; and a relay leg); and Kelly Franks (500 and 1650 freestyles, 4:36.37 and 16.04.51; and a relay turn).

Add to this stellar holdover group the presence of 1977 double winner D'Arcy Hamilton (100 and 200 backstrokes, :53.34 and a meet record 1:55.35)—back after a year's layoff—and sophomore U. of Hawaii transfers Chris Erickson (200 free, 1:40.98; 200 IM, 1:54.39) and Shaun Hurley (200 IM, 1:57.8; 400 IM, 4:11.3) and it's tough to imagine the Clansmen being anywhere other than at the top come March in Huntsville.

The teams figuring to be in the best position to challenge the Canadians are '77 runnerup Wisconsin-Eau Claire; Missouri entrant Drury; West Virginia power Fairmont State; Northern Intercollegiate titlist Bemidji State MINN; West Coast threat the University of California-San Diego and Rocky Mountain representative University of Denver.

Eau Claire, with six Wisconsin State conference titles in the past seven years and ranked in the national Top Ten each of those six years, lists 15 returning letter winners-eight of whom have earned All America recognition. Leading the Blugold veteran contingent are three-time All America seniors Andy Antonetz (200 fly) and Nate Nevid (400 free, IM) and two-time honorees Jim Harmon and Gary Brewer. Harmon provided the '78 meet its only individual record breaking performance when he won the 100 freestyle in :46.27 after taking the 50-yard version of the event in :21.27. This year squad coaching duties are split with 10-year veteran Tom Prior concentrating on the swimmers and first-year addition Jo Casey handling the divers of which Brewer and classmate Jim Brennan are the best.

Over at Drury 10-year Panther mentor Jack Steck (96-30 dual record, 26 All Americans) returns 14 regulars off of last year's fourth place team including all four members of his national championship+400-yard freestyle relay squad (seniors Tom Schaper and Mike Wagnon and sophomore Jim Yount). Wagnon figures to be the squad's top contender for a national crown having taken thirds in last year's 100 backstroke (54.63) and 200 IM (1:59.90). Newcomers like Robert McMullen and Doyt Ladd figure to give the Panthers help in the fly events as will Richard Hall and Dan Sullivan in the distances. Indiana prepster Mike Lewis is the lone diving import.

Fairmont State features a squad of 13 returning monogram winners led by former 200 freestyle king John Orchard and sophomore Scott Hernon and lists 11 recruits paced by U. of Texas transfer John McMahon and JUCO All-American Ron Rieger while UC-San Diego hopes for a top five spot with soph freestyler Joe Hernandez the top returnee and UC-Santa Barbara transfer Seth Richman and freshman Nelson Howard the leading newcomers.

Bemidji State's Lee Ahlbrecht (11th year) hopes to push his Beavers up the championship ladder with 13 lettermen on a school record 32-man roster; the key returnees being junior Ron Bornetun and sophomore Steve Boss while '78 Coach of the Year Jim Bain's young U. of Denver club returns 10 lettermen including Ali Americans Eric Bragg, Mark Evans, Greg Fritz and Jon Hayashida.

Returning individual national champions not already mentioned include Central Washington's Russ Ferguson and Roger Coburn ('77 100 breaststroke and 200 butterfly); Clarion State PA's double dive champion Tony Perriello and Wisconsin-Stevens Point '78 100 breaststroke king junior Dan Jesse (:59,77).

Other teams figuring to be in the "swim of things" include Western State COLO (14 lettermen including Don Case and Dave Gray); Westminster PA (13 returnees led by Bruce Marchionda and Mark Huhu); rejuvenated Willamette ORE (with senior Mike Anderson out front); Colorado Mines with Steve Lowe the top returnee; Southwest State MINN with newcomer Brian Reynolds setting the pace and Pacific Lutheran WASH with Bruce Templin and Bruce Wakefield the key Lutes for new coach Peter Kennedy.

Augsburg Faces Competition In Ice Hockey Title Chase

When the Augsburg College MINN Auggies beat No. 1 ranked and seeded Bemidji State MINN 4-3 to win the 1978 NAIA national ice hockey title at the State Fairgrounds Coliseum last winter in St. Paul, Minn., the feeling of pride accompanying the win spread far beyond the school's Minneapolis campus boundaries for in taking the crown the Auggies became the first Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC) team to accomplish the feat in the tourney's 11-year history.

Now in 1979 with the scene of the eight-team action shifting to St. Paul's Civic Center (Feb. 23-25) and the dissolution of the Intercollegiate Hockey conference (ICHA) leaving six open berths in the field, veteran Auggie coach Ed Saugestad (17 yrs., 239-150-5) is hoping that the return of 14 lettermen and the addition of some top notch newcomers will be enough to withstand the pressures of former national titlists Bemidjl State and St. Scholastica MINN and up-and-coming Wisconsin-River Falls and Ferris State MICH and once again put Augsburg atop the NAIA ice world.

Top competition within the MIAC should come from the Golden Gusties at Gustavus Adolphus and the Tommies at St. Thomas.

Going into the '78-'79 campaign Augsburg's strength appears to be in its defense where top blueliners Brian Gauger (6-0, 180 jr.; ALL-MIAC '78); Paul Holmquist (5-11, 180 sr.); and Paul Hughes (5-10, 170 jr.) are joined by a healthy Dan Carlson (6-3, 200 jr.); top freshman Bob Schwartz (5-10, 170) and U. of Minnesota transfer Dan Lundgren (6-1, 210) - all of whom figure to help keep the pressure off veteran goalies Dick Bain (5-10, 170 jr. - '78 All Tournament) and Tom Kulenkamp (5-11 sr.). Top offensive threats are No. 1 liners Chris Walker (5-10 jr.), Mike Erickson (5-9 jr.) and team captain Jim Freeburg (5-10 sr.); senior winger Vern McIntyre, Junior Chuck McCann and newcomer Jim Roof.

Over at perennial power Bemidji State, 25-5-1 last year and national titlists in 1968-69-70-71 and '73, Beaver mentor Bob Peters (12 yrs., 236-86-9) heads into the current campaign with veteran talent everywhere but in the goal — boasting no fewer than 18 returning monogram winners led by senior All American trio Rod Heisler (6-3, 193 winger); Mike Gibbons (5-10, 190 defenseman) and John Murphy (5-7, 160 center) and '77-'78 leading scorer Brian Carleton (5-8, 160 jr. center). In goal sophomore Dan Olson (6-1) is backed by freshmen Jim Scanlon (5-9) and Dick

Thompson (5-8). The club's nine seniors have seen the club move progressively up the championship tournament ladder — taking fourth as freshmen; third as sophomores and second last year as juniors.

Seventeen returnees and a crop of top imports provide second year St. Scholastica coach Kevin Hoene with a quality nucleus around which to work as his Saints go after their fifth straight national tournament trip - coming away twice with the top prize ('75 and '77). Offsetting the loss of graduated All Americans Andy Speak, Buzzy LaFond and Bill Courchaine are the likes of St. Mary's MINN transfer Pete Hammer (6-0, 190 center); Minnesota-Duluth catch Erin Roth (5-9, 170 wing); U. of Denver experienced goalie Walt Aufderheide (6-0 soph.); and top holdovers Scott Robideux (5-10 soph, defender) and Todd Hennemuth (5-9 sr. center).

Coming off back-to-back 18-8 and 18-7 seasons UW-River Falls sixth year coach Don Joseph is looking for his best year yet in '78-'79 with 16 lettermen back, including top three scorers Mike Mayasich (5-10, 160 sr. center), Dick Novak (5-11, 185 jr. center) and Brad Johnson (5-10, 180 soph. wing); top defenseman Mark Prettyman (6-2, 195 sr.; '78 All America) and goalie Kurt Welch (5-11, 178 jr.). New blood is provided by transfers Tom Funk (6-0, 190 soph. center-St. Thomas) and Brad Carlson (6-3, 190 soph. wing - Michigan Tech) and freshmen John Alexander (5-9 wing) and Eric Shuman (5-10 goalie). The Falcons have appeared in the past four national tourneys — taking fourth last year.

Finally, over at Ferris State, Rick Duffett's Bulldogs (3 yrs., 48-16-1) go after their third straight tourney appearance with 13 lettermen in camp — tops among them wingers Ed Turner (6-2 jr.) and Steve Banonis (6-0 soph.) and center Perry Zoldak (5-11 jr.) — the three of whom combined to form the most potent line in Bulldog history last year when they accounted for 66 goals. Top newcomers include freshmen Jim Baker (5-9) and Randy Strong (5-11) - both of whom hail from Mississauga, Ontario.

AUGIES PREVAIL—Action between eventual NAIA champion Augsburg (dark uniform) and Bemidji State MINN go at it during last year's National Ice Hockey tournament in St. Paul, Minn. This year eight team classic is set for Feb. 23-25 at St. Paul's Civic Center.

Wide Open Battle Looms In Track & Field Indoor Classic

Tying for a national championship isn't bad but winning one outright is a whole lot better and come Feb. 15-17 and the NAIA's 14th annual National Indoor Track and Field Championship meet in Kansas City's Municipal Auditorium winning the title without strings attached will be foremost on the minds of both the Abilene Christian TEX Wildcats and the Jackson State MISS Tigers — last year's first ever meet cochampions.

An anticipated head-to-head confrontation between the two powerhouses failed to materialize last spring when financial problems kept Jackson State from participating in the outdoor championship meet in Abilene.

Figuring to give both teams a run for the title is '78 third place finisher Southern University-Baton Rouge LA.

This year's indoor extravaganza takes on a new look, expanding to a three-day format with the addition of a 10-event women's open division. The event's first three runs in 1966-67-68 - featured open women's competition in four events.

Here's a brief look at the top teams in this year's field:

ABILENE CHRISTIAN: Despite the still questionable health status of both '78 double winner John Kebiro (mile/two mile) and pole vault co-champion Frank Estes, Coach Don Hood's Wildcats still boast a wealth of talent with 10 other lettermen returning including '78 indoor All America seniors Randy Baker (2nd-600, 1:12.8); Jim West (6th-shot put, 52-61/2) and Carl "Sugar" Williams (3rd-long jump, 24-4); and sophomore pole vault sensation Billy Olson (tied for 1st, 16-6). Olson won the outdoor vault title last year at a record 16-7 heighth and boasts a 17-10¾" personal best while Estes has a 17-6½ effort to his credit. Newcomers to the 'Cat stable include 54-foot shot putter Martin Guerrero; Canadian middle distance man Frank Houston (3:52 1,500); and former SUBR triple jumper Bill McClellan (53-1).

JACKSON STATE: Defending senior national indoor champions Kenneth Brimmer, Dennis Ducksworth and Dennis Trott return to head up coach Martin Epps' 10th Tiger contingent. Brimmer took '78 Outstanding indoor Field Performer honors by winning the triple jump at a record 52-101/4 distance and taking sixth in the long jump at 23-93/4 while Ducksworth claimed the 440 crown in :49.19 and Trott the long jump at 25-1. Trott, a former Bermuda Olympian, also took second in the 60 in :6.24. The top newcomer onboard figures to be Trinidad sprinter Willis Alexander (:6.2).

SOUTHERN-BATON ROUGE: Replacing world class athletes the caliber of Ricky Davenport, Jarvis White and James McCraney isn't easy but Jaguar coach Claude Paxton still figures to be among the leaders with 10 returning lettermen led by All America bluechippers Kenneth August (6th-440, :56.4/mile relay) Jesse Johnson (3rd-440, :49.67/mile relay) anchor); and Edgar Fordham (5th-60 yd. highs, :7.53); 6-10 sophomore high jumper Everett Champion; and quartermiler Greg Isaac (:47.9) and top sprint recruits Steve Cox (:9.6 100), Bobby Davis (:9.7) and Kelvin Driscoll (:9.8).

Other veteran teams that should rank high in the competition are Ouachita Baptist ARK where 18 lettermen - including sprinter Alton Kenner (:20.9 220), middle distance men Mark Moseley (1:51 800) and Jerry House (1:50.8 800) and hurdler Gerald Jones (14,3 120s) - return; Oklahoma Christian, with its 12 monogram winners led by defending high jump king Bob Bayless (6-10); distance medley relay cogs Bobby Smith, Tom Story and Gary Tatum and 7-0 high jumper Woody Bowles; surprise 1978 cross country champion Pembroke State NC with 20 seasoned performers led by four-time All American Garry Henry (5,000/10,000); miler Jeff Moody and vaulter Jim Miles; Eastern Washington with field star Vic White - an outdoor double winner (high and triple jumps, 7-0 and 50-41/2); distanceman Rick Becker and 800 ace Steve Kiesel back; and Carson-Newman TENN where an impressive flock of newcomers hook up with top holdovers Stacey Hill (800), Mike Cook (60) and Darrell Fincher (60 highs).

LOOKING BACK . . .

10 Years (Spring, 1969)

The spring issue of the NEWS carried a feature story on the defensive prowess of Coach Bill Lucas' Central State OH basketbail Mauraders. The article noted that the team was again leading the NAIA in team defense but points out that unlike the year before the squad was using a man-to-man defense. That, according to the author, was like "telling Frank Howard to bunt, or hinting that Oscar Robertson should stop trying to score points." Central State was traditionally a 1-3-1 zone team.

Bill Lucas

The 1968 All American football team featured Troy State ALA quarterback Sim Byrd (3,028 yds., 34 TDs); Moorhead State MINN fullback Mike Quirk (1,392 yds., 20 TDs), and East Texas State's Arthur "King" James (153 yds. rushing a game) in the backfield; Emporia State KAN's Bruce Cerone (91 receptions, 1,479 yds.) at an end and Sam Houston State TEX defensive tackle George Wright (6-5, 250).

Davis & Elkins WVA battled defending champion Quincy into five overtime periods before winning the 1968 soccer title, 2-1, at Quincy. It marked the debut of the eight-team tournament format. Out in Oklahoma City John Mason's second straight cross country win gave Fort Hays State KAN the '68 harrier crown over 35 participating teams. Emporia State KAN took second, Eastern Michigan third and Westmont Calif, fourth.

Big doings in District 20 with the formation of the NIIC (Aurora, Concordia Teachers, George Williams, Judson, Rockford, St. Procopius and Trinity).

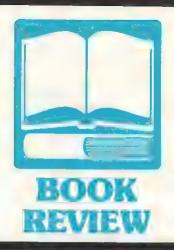

20 Years (January, 1959)

Executive Secretary/Treasurer A. O. Duer opens this newly expanded issue of the NEWS by pointing out that "NAIA is known as a 'small college' organization." "We are", Duer notes, "proud of this fact because today the determining factor in athletic smallness or largeness depends primarily upon the size of athletic budget. In this sense, we hope we shall always be 'small'."

Excitement was building for the 21st annual National Tournament with the prospect of Tennessee State becoming the first team in tourney history to win three straight titles. The club, 15-0, had already won the prestigious Quincy Holiday Tournament with Dick Barnett taking MVP honors.

Nine men were added to the football Hall of Fame: Coe IA's Moray Eby and East Texas State's John W. Rollins as contributors; Southern-Baton Rouge's A. W. Mumford, Lake Forest ILL's Ralph R. Jones (posthumously) and Central MO's Clarence Clingenpeel as coaches; and Florense ALA's Harlon Hill, Penn State-Clarion's Alex Sandusky, Louisiana Tech's Leo Sanford and St. Benedict KAN's Tom Dorney as athletes. Dorney was born with only one arm.

The third annual swimming and diving meet was announced for Ball State IND with John Lewellen listed as meet director while the second annual wrestling tournament was headed for Northern Illinois University with AD George Evans running the show.

Questions continually asked by young athletes, their parents and coaches are now available in one up-to-date, realistic guide which puts games and gamesmanship into the proper perspective.

Whether the athlete is contemplating a professional sports career, or just wants to do his best on the neighborhood sandlot or high school varsity team, Handbook For the Young Athlete presents thorough, easy-to-read, practical counsel.

Various chapters cover such topics as how to evaluate your athletic potential, skills and fitness; training to improve your speed, power and endurance; how to prepare an annual training schedule for pre-season, competitive and post-season; nutritional needs for general athletics and specific sports; prevention and management of sports injuries; specialty training for tennis, football and other individual sports.

Handbook For the Young Athlete is priced at $4.95 and additional information can be obtained by writing P.O. Box 208, Palo Alto, CA 94302.

Administrative Practices in Boys and Girls Interscholastic Athletics was designed for use by students majoring in physical education and those already actively engaged in administering or coaching interscholastic athletic programs. It can be used as a textbook or as a resource book.

The book presents a practical approach to dealing with everyday realities encountered in the administration of boys and girls interscholastic athletics. Over 250 forms and illustrations present practical how-to-do-it suggestions, and the descriptions explain how to deal with the many administrative problems with which the administrator is confronted.

The 616 page book, co-authored by William A. Healey, Northern University Illinois, and John H. Healey, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, is available for $27.50 from Charles C. Thomas, Publisher, 301-327 East Lawrence Avenue, Springfield, IL 62717.

Philander Smith Hit by Probation

Philander Smith College of Little Rock, ARK, has been placed on a one-year's probation in all sports by the NAIA Conduct of Athletics and Participation Committee of the NAIA Executive Committee.

The probation denies Philander Smith participation in any post-season competition, the NAIA awards program and listing in all statistical services of the NAIA during the 1978-79 athletic season.

Philander Smith was found to have violated eligibility regulations involving five student-athletes in the sport of basketball and five student-athletes in the sport of baseball during the 1977-78 season.

In addition, Philander Smith was required, through standard procedures, to forfeit all basketball and baseball contests during the 1977-78 season in which the ineligible student-athletes were used.

Chadron State Wins Boot Hill Crown

DODGE CITY, KAN. - With senior quarterback Brad Fults passing for a game record 306 yards and rushing for another 119 the Chadron State NEB Eagles handed Baker KAN a 30-19 loss November 18 in the ninth Boot Hill Bowl.

The post-season win, the first in Chadron grid history, left the Eagles with a 7-2-2 record while Baker finished 8-3.

Leading 3-0 at the end of the first quarter, Chadron exploded for three second stanza touchdowns with Fults connecting on eight of nine passes and two scores - first on an 88-yarder to classmate flanker Bill Ryan (who finished the day with eight catches for 191 yards) and then a 27-yarder to freshman Joe Burke. Fults added a 44 yard TD run of his own in the fourth quarter.

Baker signalcaller Mike Baggs - like Fults a nationally ranked passer - hit on 14 of 37 passes for 143 yards and a touchdown.

NAIA NEWS-O-GRAM

BILL MILLER, athletic director and for the past 14 years head football coach at Southwest Texas State University, recently announced that he would give up his coaching duties to devote full time to his AD chores. Miller's '78 Bobcat squad finished 6-4 to boost his career mark to 86-51-3 . . . ill health has caused BILL MCDONALD to step down as head football coach at Edinboro State PA after 10 years at the Fighting Scots helm (54-36-7). McDonald's 1970 club went 8-0 during the regular season winning the Lambert Bowl and earning for McDonald Coach-of-the Year honors for NAIA District 18 and Area VIII. The 1971 team finished 9-0 . . . Back down in the Lone Star Conference, ABILENE CHRISTIAN TEX didn't waste much time in filling the spot left by the resignation of second year head coach DE-WITT JONES, naming offensive coordinator TED SITTON as the Wildcats' new head man. Jones, who was named the NAIA's 1977 National Coach of the Year after leading ACU to the Division I championship and compiled an 18-4-1 record during his two-year stay, left effective Dec. 1 to become part-owner of a new sporting goods store in Abilene. Successor Sitton, a member of the ACU staff since 1967, was graduated from Abilene Christian in 1954 after four years as a Wildcat quarterback. He spent 13 years in Texas high school coaching between '54 and '67 ... Up north it was recently announced that GARY BUER, head football coach and athletic director at Dakota State SD, had accepted the position of assistant professor of health and physical education and head football coach at Southwest State University MINN. Buer replaces LEW SHAVER, who resigned in mid-November to take a teaching assignment at the University of Illinois, Buer, a 1968 Minnesota-Morris grad, served as defensive coordinator at both St. Cloud State MINN and UM-Morris before going to BYU for a year and then to Dakota State in 1977. During his two years at Dakota State the Trojans compiled an 18-2 record that included consecutive SDIC titles . . . Other recent developments have HAROLD MAYO, offensive coordinator at Angelo State University TEX the past season, has returned to Howard Payne University as head coach . . . BILL NEAL stepping down at Indiana PA, CLINT EWALD leaving Macalester MINN, and BILL GILES departing Fort Hays State KAN. Earlier in the year Emporia State's DAVE HOOVER had announced his resignation and it was recently announced that BOB SEAMAN, formerly at Wichita State, would replace Hoover... Other Kansas-based activity had JACK KATER (basketball) quitting at Friends U. and MATT MAY stepping down at Benedictine... Continuing with the fall sports developments two soccer coaches have announced their intentions to leave their respective institutions — Lenoir-Rhyne NC's DAVID SCOTT leaving after just one year at the Hickory campus and Spring Garden PA's ALEXANDRE ELY bidding adieu after four years at Chestnut Hill. Ely's

1978 squad won the NAIA District 19 soccer title and finished second in the area competition to finish at 13-5... and finally speaking of baseball, which we weren't, GENE CARDINAL has recently stepped down as Winconsin-Whitewater's coach after 13 years with the Warhawks. MARK PETERSON, a staff member the past four years, has already been named to replace Cardinal. During Cardinal's 13-year stretch the Warhawks raced up a 133-171 overall record. Cardinal will remain on campus as an instructor in the school's department of coaching.

DISTRICT DOINGS

Six former coaches and athletes were inducted into the District 14 (Wisconsin) NAIA Hall of Fame in ceremonies on November 19. They include Lowell "Red" Dawson, former football great at Wisconsin-River Falls; Nate DeLong, who held the NAIA national basketball tournament scoring record for 27 years while leading Wisconsin-River Falls into the National Tournament; Archie Morrow, exfootball and basketball star Wisconsin-River Falls and longtime sports official in Wisconsin; John Peterson, former wrestling standout from Wisconsin-Stout and a gold medalist in the 1976 Olympic games; Ed Schwager, longtime athletic director and head football coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater; and Clark Van Galder, successful athlete and head football coach at Wisconsin-LaCrosse for many years . . . Leroy Walker, North Carolina Central College (District 26) coach and a member of the NAIA National Executive Committee, has been named national coach coordinator for track and field by the Amateur Athletic Union. Walker was head coach of the U.S. Olympic team which claimed six gold medals at Montreal . . . Lubbock Christian College TEX (District 8) has been awarded membership in the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association (TIAA) and will field its first football team in 1979 . . . Clarence "Bighouse" Gaines, winningest active coach in college basketball at Winston-Salem State University NC (District 26) has been inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame. Gaines, a member of the NAIA Hall of Fame, has been Director of Athletics and Head Basketball Coach at Winston-Salem for 33 years . . . After 32 years Eastern Montana College (District 12) is dropping football. The Yellowjackets finished the 1978 season with a 2-6-1 record. The school's best mark was a 7-2 in 1968 . . . Gil Steinke, athletic director at Texas A&I University (District 4), has been named president of the newly organized Texas A&I University coaches Association. Steinke, head football coach at A&I for 23 years before retiring from his coaching duties in the spring of 1977, will head an organization which includes former Javelina athletes, students and coaches who are active in athletics . . . Several NAIA football players participated in the Black College All-Star Bowl on January 7 in the New Orleans Superdome. Bill Hayes, Winston-Salem State NC and George James, Alabama State, served as assistant coaches for the East football team . . . California State University Dominguez Hills (District 3) dedicated its new 3.7 million dollar gymnasium in November . . . The University of Alabama-Huntsville District 27 basketball team, coached by A.L. "Kayo" Willis, represented the Amateur Basketball Association of the United States of America (ABAUSA) in the Goiania, Brazil Tournament, which helped inaugurate a new 15,000 seat arena in that country . . . Lewis & Clark College ORE (District 2) recently inducted 10 charter members into its Athletic Hall of Fame . . . Three Texas A&I athletes (District 4) from the 1959-63 era recently became the 24th, 25th, and 26th inductees into that school's Hall of Fame since the first inductions in 1972 . . . Willamette University ORE (District 2) co-sponsored the second annual Governor's Trophy Run on January 13. Some 2,000 participants were on hand for the half marathon, 10,000 meters and two-mile runs . . .

WHAT COACHES SAY:

"In our organization, knowing what we are accomplishing with professional players using our Granada machines. I'd consider them virtually indispensible in any amateur program."

> "Each of our players get 150 swings per day, rain or shine. We used the Granada four hours a day from March to June without a minutes trouble. Have won District the three years we've had the machine."

"We have four machines and if we could keep only one, it would be the Granada. We do more with it, and in less time."

"Granada doubled our practice and we doubled it again by our 7-8 AM practices. It helped us to the state finals."

"Ideal for quickening the wrists and reactions necessary for successful hitting. Can be used in a small area without danger to players."

> "Superior to anything on the market for teaching players to hit the fast ball since the fear element is removed."

"It's fast, it's fun, it's certain. When it comes to hitting practice, Granada is the best thing that ever happened. Now, even in bad weather our players get twice the practice they used to get."

"The machine is terrific for instruction. Time and space are saved and our players get more swings than ever. Outstanding for teaching hitting mechanics and fundamentals."
